

I really think
Mr. Putter and Tabby bake
the cake is a really good book. You should read it. Just take a look at the cover and you will realise Mr. Putter is trying to bake a cake. There is something really funny on the cover too. Can you see that Tabby is in the pot watching Mr.

Putter bake the cake?
That is very funny -
don't you think so?
Tabby is always trying to get close to Mr. Putter.

And can you
see the details he put into
that a broken egg? I + reminded me of when me and my mom make scrambled eggs every morning. I think cracking eggs is fun but Mr. Putter looks afraid.

Open to the title page.
Why do you think Tabby is jumping with ribbons? That is because this book is about Christmas and the ribbons must have come from a present. I thought Tabby was an old cat, I didn't think she still played with yarn and ribbons.

Now look at the
 tabel of contents.
 Which chapter looks the best? In the first chapter it is winter and Mr. Putter and Tabby are always thinking about stuff like presents to give other people especially Mrs. Feaberry.

 It is really funny when Mr. Putter is thinking about how yaky fruit cake is. He decides to make her a light airy cake that won't break her toe if she drops it. It is pretty funny huh? It says it so many times in the book. Read it your self.

The problem begins in the chapter No Fans. Mr. Putter thought it was going to be a  muffin + tin sinch but it was not a sinch. It is not easy as pie, because he can't make pie, and he can't make cake!

Tee-hee-hee!!! He can only bake instant muffins and instant popovers. This is where the funny stuff really starts to happen. The first thing that goes wrong is he's got no pans!!! He's got muffin pans, and he's got popover pans, he's got a shoe he could use. BUT HE'S GOT NO CAKE PANS.

I am not going to tell you the rest. You've got to read it for yourself.
Find out what happens

When he thinks about baking a cake in a shoe or a flower pot or a hat. Find out how he will make the cake and get some help from Mary Sue the Sweet Shop owner.

Love,
Levi
