I want the 6th my welder
School books together
best book with an action in it award.

It is very funny

because in the book
a.j. runs for 3rd grade president so Andrea can lose. If a.j. wins, the whole 3rd grade will have a lot of fun rules.

one great part is when a.j.'s friends become his bodyguard, Neil the nude kid says "somebody might try to attack you!"

Another great part is when Andrea and a.j. campaign, they campaign like crazy! Let me tell you some of the best promises.

Name _____

Date _____

one thing a.j.
promise is there
will be no
homework.

One thing
andrea promises
is every kid will get an iPad.

"a game system will be built into every desk" "The water fountains will be filled with lemonade!"

Every class president or mayor would want to spend there money on this!
